

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.—Ran away from the subscriber, on Sunday, the 8th of November, my negro man SAM, who calls himself Samuel Tyler. He is of ordinary stature, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; of rather a copper color; remarkably handsome, and genteel in his appearance. As this servant has had great privileges, he has no doubt accumulated considerable money, and will probably change his clothing. He has taken with him a handsome blue frock coat, one gray coat with steel buttons, one drab-colored overcoat, one pair of blue pantaloons, and one new pair of light mixed cloth. He went off without provocation, and I have no doubt but he has gone immediately for some free State.

I will give $50 if taken in Prince George's county or the District of Columbia; $100 if taken out of the county, and in the State of Maryland; and the above reward if taken any where else.
